

this is me learning how to draw i still dont know how to draw because i can't hang a computer up on a wall different forms obsessive familiarization recognizing history classic changes within cultural bounds familiar color familiar symbol does it fit?

Then and now
Two different times
Two different worlds

I could imagine being on the beach during the 40's laying down in my red polka-dotted bikini. A man a few feet away is yelling "ice cold soda, ice cold coca-cola!" I buy a coke. it's crisp.
it's cool.
it's the right thing to do.

A girl and her banana necklace A drummer and his drummer stick A guitarist and his guitar pick A musician and his record it travels through America from its home to the rest of the world the world can't escape it we love it it will always be there living in a mermaid's world where lies a mountain of the unnatural she guards another realm beauty sleeps inside of nostalgia hardly recognizing the feeling which never escaped remaining repressed craving for more capability only left to appreciate lines put together to form beauty in its entirety we call in and out of love for objects the people behind the objects disappear only the object remains
